

The Ohio Avenue Theme Song

Sung to the tune of "This Land is Your Land" with apologies to Woody Guthrie.
Written for the 1998 Ohio Avenue Block Party by Ohio Avenue alumni Michelle and Gwen.

This street is my street
This street is your street
It's not a rich street
It's not a poor street
We are real friendly
A door-to-door street
This street was made for you and me!

This street is our street
Ohio Avenue
All the way from Atwood
To the railroad tracks
There are some cross streets
For instance Bashford
This street was made for you and me!
This street is our street
and we all live here
You got your oldsters
You got your youngsters
You got yer homo ... ners and your renters
This street was made for you and me!

On Ohio Avenue
There's famous people
We had Judge Gaylord got P.S. Mueller
There's Stuart Stotts
And the folks from Bongo
This street was made for you and me!

On Ohio Avenue
There's Clark and Diva
Ticky and Sycamore,

and Tilly everywhere,
Baxter, Scout and Greta
Eddy wand'ring through
Beau, Bob and Rockey
Tucker and Stevie
Yada yada yadaaaaaaa
Yada yada yadaaaaaaa
This street was made for you and me!

They sweep our streets clean
They give us tickets
And in the winter
They give us more tickets
And up above us
The planes are roaring
This street was made for you and me!

There's the Ohio Tavern
They've got no phone there
The drunks go driving
Every Saturday night
We've had more hit and runs than any other street.
This street was made for you and me!

Each year in summer
we block the street off
We meet our neighbors.
and all their friends.
We inspire other streets with our great block party.
This street was made for you and me!
